Ariane Rowland and Jamie Schulze v. Watchtower Bible and Tract Society of New York, Inc., et al.
USDC Billings Division 20-CV-59-SPW-TJC
File No. 78280.002

Gentlemen:

I am writing in response to Ryan's letter dated April 13, 2022, requesting additional information regarding the Privilege Log of Watchtower Bible and Tract Society of New York (hereinafter "WTNY"). While it is WTNY's position that the Privilege Log satisfies the requirements of Rule 26(b)(5)(A)(ii), Fed.R.Civ.P., WTNY provides the following information in the spirit of cooperation.

The primary legal basis for the Third-Party Privacy Privilege asserted in WTNY's Privilege Log is Article II, Section 10 of the Montana Constitution, which provides a right to privacy exceeding such right provided by the United States Constitution. State v. Ellis, 2009 MT 192, ¶ 22, 351 Mont. 95, 210 P.3d 144. This right extends to informational privacy including, for example, the release of patient names without the consent of the patient. St. James Community Hosp., Inc. v Dist. Ct., 2003 MT 261, ¶ 8, 317 Mont. 419, 77 P.3d 534. See also Favalora v. Sidaway, 996 So.2d 895 (Fla. Dist. App. 2008) (producing names of alleged victims and perpetrators not connected with litigation against Catholic Archdiocese of Miami for sexual abuse claims would violate their privacy rights). In total, the right to privacy applies to all persons who are not involved in the current litigation. Individual Jehovah's Witnesses also have the right to pursue their lawful private interests privately and to associate freely with others in so doing under the protection of the Fourteenth Amendment to the United States Constitution as recognized in Natl. Assn. for Advancement of Colored People v. State of Ala. ex rel. Patterson, 357 U.S. 449, 466, 78 S.Ct. 1163, 1174 (1958).

Concerning the documents identified in WTNY's Privilege Log for which the Attorney-Client Privilege is asserted, all attorneys and associated staff were members of WTNY's Legal Department, the address of which is 100 Watchtower Drive, Patterson, NY 12563. For associated telephone calls, the person with WTNY's Legal Department would have been located at that address. The clients were those who sought or were provided legal advice by WTNY's Legal Department, including the elders who communicated with WTNY's Legal Department individually and on behalf of their Congregations. The physical location of the elders who were on the telephone calls referenced in the documents identified in the Privilege Log is not known, although their Congregation address is identified below. Only those individuals listed below were party to the communications.

Considering the documents identified in WTNY's Privilege Log for which the Clergy-Penitent Privilege is asserted, such privilege is held by those persons regarding whom the elders writing the letters sought religious guidance, admonishment, or advice based on information learned through communications with elders such as confessions and through proceedings before a judicial committee. See Order Re Motion to Compel Hardin Congregation's Subpoena, Doc. 82 in the Caekaert litigation, pp. 3-4.

Turning to the specific documents identified in WTNY's Privilege Log:

- PL No. 1: On 07/22/1992, elders Scott Duy and Howard Earl of the Hardin Congregation (704 4th St., Hardin, MT) communicated with WTNY's Legal Department; James Andrik (paralegal at the time, now an attorney) handled the call and authored the handwritten privileged document; the subject matter was the callers' legal obligations involving Bruce Mapley, Sr.'s alleged conduct.
